An Invitation to Join Us

Dear Friends:

Welcome to 'A Pilgrimage of Peace to the Holy Land.'

This past May, Pope John Paul II encouraged "pilgrimages of peace" to the Holy Land to express solidarity with the local Christian community. In his address to the general assembly of the Italian bishops' conference, the Pope applauded the initiative adopted last year by Italian dioceses to promote "pilgrimages of peace to the Holy Land." These pilgrimages are a sign of solidarity, a witness to peace, and an opportunity for economic support of the beleaguered Palestinian Christian community.

"Many of you have visited personally those places, taking numerous pilgrims with you. It is also a strong sign of closeness and solidarity for the Christian communities that live there and that are in great need of your help." the Holy Father said.

Co-sponsored by Catholic Relief Services and the Joliet Diocese Peace and Social Justice Ministry along with Koinonia Retreats, this pilgrimage responds to the Pope's call and the example of the Italian bishops to find solidarity with the people of the Holy Land. Our pilgrimage will include visits to the Holy Places, the "Ancient Stones", important to the People of God. We will walk where Jesus walked. But, we will also take time to visit God's Holy People, the "Living Stones", the Palestinian Christians who live in Israel. We will walk in solidarity with the descendants of the people with whom Jesus walked.

Each day will be steeped in scripture reflections, prayer times, and liturgy. We will also have an opportunity to hear from the oppressed of the land, to witness efforts to bring justice and peace through development and empowerment, to learn from peacemakers and Middle-east issue experts. This will not be a tourist trip, but a pilgrimage. It will be a pilgrimage of prayer, solidarity, and the quest for peace.

Our Team

Bishop George Lucas

Bishop George Lucas was born in St. Louis, MO and was ordained to the priesthood there in 1975. He has served as a parish priest, high school teacher and as Chancellor and Vicar General of the Archdiocese of St. Louis. He has also served as rector of Kenrick-Glennon Seminary. He was ordained and installed as eighth bishop of the Diocese of Springfield in Illinois in December, 1999.

Sue & Jim Morris

Sue and Jim Morris are from the Springfield Diocese where they are known as "tireless ministers of prayer, justice and peace." Jim and Sue co-founded Koinonia, a spiritual weekend for adults now thriving in 24 states and 2 countries. In 1991 they were awarded the Spiritus Franciscanus award by Joliet's University of St. Francis. They were instrumental in developing RCIA programs at 3 parishes and in bringing Teens Encounter Christ and Pax Christi to Springfield. They also led Habitat for Humanity in Springfield for two years. Together they have organized and directed hundreds of individual and group retreats. Sue worked almost eleven years for the Diocese of Springfield, concentrating her efforts in spirituality along with peace and justice issues. She is now connecting spirituality with justice through "Salt & Light" offering retreats, presentations and days of prayer. Jim is DRE for Little Flower Parish.

Deacon Tom Goebel

Tom was ordained a permanent deacon for the Joliet Diocese in 1979. Beyond parish activities he has been involved with Cursillo, Marriage Encounter and peace and justice issues. Tom has traveled to Palestine/Israel several times. He has journeyed with Ministry of Money to acquaint himself and to work with the poorest of the poor. These pilgrimages include travel and work in India, Kenya, Ethiopia, Tanzania, Bosnia, and Palestine. Tom also went to Bolivia with the Joliet Diocese' Medical Mission as a chaplain and is co-founder of the diocese's mission to the Navajo Nation. Tom looks forward to traveling to Palestine/Israel again to journey with you in this wonderful Christ filled adventure.

Joyce Ruhaak

Joyce has been an associate in the Peace and Social Justice Ministry for eight years. She finds travel and conversations with people of other cultures optimum educational opportunities. Mrs. Ruhaak and her husband Bill have attended three convenings of the "Parliament of the World's Religions:" '93 in Chicago, '99 in Capetown, and '04 in Barcelona. Joyce has traveled to the Holy Land on the "Living Stones Pilgrimage" previously. Three times she has participated in the diocesan mission trips to Bolivia. She and her husband have also traveled to Argentina, the Philippines, Taiwan, Indonesia, and to some of Europe. Bill and Joyce are active in Marriage Encounter, Pax Christi, West Suburban Faith-based Peace Coalition, Prison Visitation and Support, the Illinois Coalition Against the Death Penalty, and Sacred Heart Parish in Joliet. Joyce has been a liturgical musician for over forty years. She believes liturgy and private prayer sustain followers of Jesus in work for social justice and peace.

Iyad Qumri

Iyad, a Palestinian Christian who lives in Jerusalem, will be our pilgrim guide. He is an experienced "animator", immersed in the life, land, places and people of the Holy Land. Iyad grew up in Galilee, not far from Nazareth. Iyad has a wonderful insight into Jesus' life and early development...knowing as he does what it is like to be a young boy, a teen, in this homeland of Jesus. He will bring to the pilgrimage a deep spirituality which flows from his life in the Holy Land.

Our Accommodations

Our accommodations are perfect for Americans on pilgrimage...quite places with hospitality and good food. All rooms provide twin accommodations with private bath. Private rooms (single accommodations) are available only on a very limited and first-come basis.

Invitation

As you read the daily itinerary, hear the voice of Jesus calling to you, "Come follow me!" Follow Jesus as he walks today with the poor, the oppressed, with those who know no peace. Follow Jesus in this pilgrimage of prayer, solidarity, and the quest for peace.

We depart from Chicago for Tel Aviv, Israel with complimentary meals and beverages served aloft.

TUES, NOV 29, DAY 02: ARRIVE TEL AVIV / NAZARETH

Upon arrival in Tel Aviv, we are met by our Catholic Travel Center representative and escorted by bus north into the Galilee region to Nazareth. Next we settle in at St. Margaret's Retreat Center, overlooking the boyhood town of Jesus, our home for the next three days. Dinner is at St. Margaret's followed by an orientation. Looking forward to the coming days, some might choose to conclude the day gazing into the night sky, pondering how Jesus, too might have spent many childhood nights counting these same stars. (D)

WED, NOV 30, DAY 03: NAZARETH VISIT AND EXCURSION TO MT. CARMEL

We begin the day with a visit to the Church of St. Gabriel and Mary's well. Afterward we visit the synagogue where Jesus began his ministry. His inaugural address, found in Luke chapter four, will focus our journey. After a visit to St. Joseph's Church we will celebrate Mass at the Basilica of the Annunciation. During lunch at St. Margaret's we will hear from Palestinian Christian peacemaker Ellias Jabour. The afternoon finds us quietly listening for God's whisper in Elijah's cave and visiting the Church of Mt. Carmel in Haifa. This evening we visit House of Grace/Melkite Church and Center in Haifa where we learn of the work to empower Israeli Arabs and share in their evening meal. During the afternoon we will celebrate Mass on Mt. Tabor. Following Mass we visit Naim's empty Catholic Church, now being kept by a Muslim family. We reflect on the Holy Land's "endangered species", the Palestinian Christians. Before returning to St. Margaret's we visit the excavation of a street of Nazareth from the 1st century under the Sisters' of Nazareth Convent. For our evening meal at St Margaret's we will be joined by leadership of the local interfaith group. We travel next to the Mount of Beatitudes where we consider the Kingdom of God. We join together for a silent walk down the Mount to the shore of the Sea of Galilee. After some reflection and sharing we will celebrate Mass at the Chapel of Peter's Primacy. We board the "Jesus Boat" for a peaceful journey across the Sea of Galilee. (Water walking is by invitation only). Lunch will be at a Kibbutz. We make our way around the shore to Capernaum where Jesus spent 2 ½ years of his life. Before ending the day we visit Tagaba and the shore of the sea. Dinner will be at St. Margarets. (B, L, D)

SAT, DEC 3, DAY 06 – GALILEE / JERUSALEM: JORDAN RIVER – BAPTISMAL VOWS RENEWAL

We make our way to the Jordan River. Wading into the waters, we renew our baptismal vows. The Holy Spirit upon us, we travel south through the wilderness to the Mount of Temptation. We fast in spirit only, though, for lunch is waiting for us at Al-Rawdah Restaurant in Jericho. Afterward we visit Palestinian Authority Offices to learn of their efforts to work for a lasting peace with justice. After a visit to the local pottery shop we head into the Wilderness where we will celebrate Mass. We continue our journey up to Jerusalem! We make our home at the Casa Nova just inside the walls of the Old City. This evening, representatives from Catholic Relief Service will join us to give an overview to the situation in the Holy Land and of their work in the Holy Land. (B, L, D)
